

Potential Dreamer

We dream at every dreaming landscape simultaneously, yet we remember dreams in our own unique way.

The dreaming landscapes –where we go in dreams– are based on time: the Dreaming Landscapes of What Is, the Dreaming Landscapes of What Was, the Dreaming Landscapes of What Could Be, and the Dreaming Landscapes of What is Eternal, but it is only one aspect that helps us build a dreaming profile; what we do in the dreaming landscapes, how open the gate to these landscapes is and how we access them are the other three main factors.

Profile

Potential Dreamers usually believe that they do not dream at all, whereas, on the contrary, every human being is always dreaming. According to Adamus Saint Germain, we experience around 24 different realities in our dream state and about 12 in our waking state, even if we are unaware that they are taking place. (Adamus Saint Germain, 2021)

Not remembering dreams may be unrelated to a degree of spiritual awareness or personal growth; highly evolved beings may have the gate to the dreaming landscapes closed off because, at a deeper level, they are choosing to keep an intense focus on this 3D experience.

If anything, it is the mind that crosses over to the night sleep, being repetitive with a particular thought; those dreams feel as if we don't fall asleep at all, but this happens to every human at some point.

Landscapes

A Potential Dreamer may also visit the Emotional Wastelands, the territories that help us clear and distill the energies that continually get entangled in our daily human lives. These dreams have no symbols or meaning, they hardly bring information, and we can build no story; we merely wake up feeling somewhat disturbed. We should breathe that into our bodies and move on; that dream has already served its purpose.

But Potential Dreamers may be placing themselves incorrectly in this category; the type of dreaming can easily be confused with that of the Crystalline Dreamer, who actually brings a lot of information from the dream state but in a non-mental way. How do we know? Because the crystalline dreams feel great.

Tips

If you are a Potential Dreamer know that it is possible to reopen the gate at any point. If that is your new choice, you may be able to begin remembering dreams by expanding the Silver Cord, also called the Crystal Staircase, that connects us to the dreaming landscapes and ultimately to our Soul, with a notably easy consciousness shift that Tobias guides in his material Dreams of 2005. No, we don't get commissions on it, but if it helps, let us know.

If you want to know more, you can explore The Dreaming Landscapes, the lands where dreams occur, or you can review The Dreaming Profiles, where you will find the ten dreaming archetypes. Alternatively, you can get a comprehensive approach to dreaming in The Essential Dreaming Workshop; there, you will be able to understand how the different cultures approached dreams in this era, you will see how movies have portrayed the dreaming landscapes, and yes, you will also have the possibility to open the gate of the dreaming landscapes and strengthen your connection to dreams.

And let us add that focusing on dreams-related information will help you expand your capacity to remember. Look out for Aberdeem on Medium; she writes about dreams in depth. And remember to always document them; A Thousand Dreams will help you make the most of them.
