

Divine Dreamer

We dream at every dreaming landscape simultaneously, yet we remember dreams in our own unique way.

The dreaming landscapes –where we go in dreams– are based on time: the Dreaming Landscapes of What Is, the Dreaming Landscapes of What Was, the Dreaming Landscapes of What Could Be, and the Dreaming Landscapes of What is Eternal, but it is only one aspect that helps us build a dreaming profile; what we do in the dreaming landscapes, how open the gate to these landscapes is and how we access them are the other three main factors.

Profile

We traverse all of the dreaming landscapes –dehydrating in the deserts, drowning in the rivers, succumbing in our ascent up mountains– only to find that our Soul is out there and yet, right here.

The spaceless, formless one-life, the origin, is within every human being and at the core of every galaxy so that by understanding ourselves, we can understand the whole universe.

Crystalline energies exist at the core of Creation, in the Crystal Caves on Earth, and at the Crystalline Waterfalls, territories readily accessible for conscious dreamers in the upper dreaming landscapes. But consciousness is not energy: that is the difference between a Crystalline Dreamer and a Divine Dreamer.

As a Life Dreamer, the Crystalline Dreamer connects with birthing energies, the energies of life that animate all tangible forms, and the conscious beings that make life energy available to all levels of our physical and non-physical existence: crystals, whales, dolphins, and trees. And the Crystalline Dreamer naturally visits the Crystalline Waterfalls, the birthing place of every potential.

Landscapes

Dreaming on Soul's Peak, on the other hand, is an alignment with our true essence; as the encounter uplifts our resonance, it calls into action energies that were previously dormant; in other words, it is consciousness that activates energy; it is consciousness that created energy, in the first place. We are consciousness, but life is energy.

Dreams in this landscape are timeless, profound, and life-changing. We recognize them because, after such an encounter, our physical body needs to rest and recuperate, and they only become tangible when we acknowledge how our physical existence changes.

Remembering a dream of an encounter with the Soul is possible but highly uncommon. Also, advanced dreamers might translate dreams about their relationship with their Souls into allegories. Arguably, these dreams correspond to the Symbolic Planes, where we bypass the mind and reveal to our conscious Self what we already know at a deeper level.

Tips

If you feel you are a Divine Dreamer, then you are prepared to listen to Soul Encounters; Adamus Saint Germain offers a brief history of how our concept of Soul has evolved and speaks of the I Am as consciousness that is only aware of itself – what most of us understand as the Soul – while the Soul is the sum of all energy. This distinction may be relevant for your explorations and the comprehension of your dreams, but beware, it is no ordinary material; it will transform the way you understand yourself.

If you want to know more, you can explore The Dreaming Landscapes, the lands where dreams occur, or you can review The Dreaming Profiles, where you will find the ten dreaming archetypes. Alternatively, you can get a comprehensive approach to dreaming in The Essential Dreaming Workshop; there, you will be able to understand how the different cultures approached dreams in this era, you will see how movies have portrayed the dreaming landscapes, and yes, you will also have the possibility to open the gate of the dreaming landscapes and strengthen your connection to dreams.

And let us add that focusing on dreams-related information will help you expand your capacity to remember. Look out for Aberdeen on Medium; she writes about dreams in depth. And remember to always document them; A Thousand Dreams will help you make the most of them.
